

Taize' Evening Prayer

New Life Lutheran Church

Second Mid-Week Lenten Service

March 4, 2020

7:00 PM

This evening we will use a style of music developed near the village of Taize' in France. It consists of short meditative passages of Scripture set to simple melodies and repeated many times. The purpose of the repetition is to give us time to reflect and internalize the truths of these words of Scripture.

Our goal as we gather at our mid-week Lenten services, is to find quiet, meditative time, so that we can escape the hustle and bustle of our busy lives, to hear of Jesus and to sing His praise and address Him in prayer. May the Lord bless us as we worship Him in prayer, meditation, and praise!

Welcome by the Pastor

Remain Seated

P: Now is the time of God's favor;

C: now is the day of salvation.

P: Turn to us again, O God of our salvation,

C: that the light of Your face may shine on us.

P: May Your justice shine like the sun;

C: And may the poor be lifted up.

As the altar candles are lit, the evening hymn is sung.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

P: Blessed are You, O Lord our God, king of the universe, who led Your people Israel by a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. Enlighten our darkness by the light of Your Christ; may His Word be a lamp to our feet and a light to our path; for You are merciful, and You love Your whole creation and we, Your creatures, glorify You, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

C: Amen

The Psalmody: Psalm 102:1,2,12,13

Refrain:

Capo 2

1 O Lord, hear my prayer, Lord is my song, O Lord, hear my prayer; the Lord is my praise.

when I call answer me. O Lord, hear my prayer, O All my hope comes from God. The Lord is my song, the Lord, hear my prayer, O

Lord, hear my prayer; come and listen to me. 2 The Lord is my praise. God, the well-spring of life.

P: Hear my prayer, LORD; let my cry for help come to You.

C: Do not hide Your face from me when I am in distress.

P: Turn Your ear to me; when I call, answer me quickly.

C: You, LORD, sit enthroned forever; Your renown endures through all generations.

P: You will arise and have compassion on Zion, for it is time to show favor to her;

C: the appointed time has come.

Refrain:

The Psalm Prayer:

P: O Lord, enthroned forever, now is the appointed time to have compassion on Your people. Look down from Your sanctuary on high and grant to Your people gathered in Your name in this sanctuary this evening, the peace that comes with knowing that our sins are all forgiven, for the sake of Jesus, in whose name we pray.

C: Amen.

The Passion Reading: Matthew 26:1-35 (King James Version)

Part I. Plot, Passover and Lord's Supper

Seasonal Response:

P: In many and various ways God spoke to His people of old by the prophets.

C: But now in these last days He has spoken to us by His Son.

The Sermon Text: Hebrews 4:15

¹⁵ For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weaknesses, but we have One who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet was without sin. (NIV 1984)

The Sermon Theme: The Son of God Goes Forth to War—Skirmishes

A Lenten Hymn: “The Son of God Goes Forth to War”

The Son of God goes forth to war A king - ly crown to gain.
Saint Ste - phen, look - ing to the sky, Saw heav'n be - yond the grave—
A glo - rious band— the cho - sen few, On whom the Spir - it came—
A no - ble ar - my, robed in white, From ev - 'ry tribe and race,

His blood - red flag streams wide and far; Who fol - lows in his train?
The Son of Man by God on high, And called on him to save.
Be - cause sure hope in Christ they knew At peace met cross and flame.
A - round the Sav - ior's throne de - light To see his glo - 'rious face.

All those who drink Christ's cup of woe, Tri - um - phant o - ver pain,
Like Christ, who par - don rare dis - played, While on the cross in pain,
They suf - fered ri - di - cule and scorn, With ha - tred they were slain.
They held the nar - row path to heav'n Through per - il, toil, and pain.

12
And pa - tient bear their cross be - low— They fol - low in his train.
This saint for his as - sail - ants prayed— Who fol - lows in his train?
Now crowns their faith - ful heads a - dorn— Who fol - lows in their train?
O God, to us may grace be giv'n To fol - low in their train!

The Offering

The Prayer of the Church:

P: Be present, O merciful God, and protect us through the silent hours of this night, so that we who are wearied by the changes and chances of this fleeting world may rest in Your eternal changelessness, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

P: O Lord, support us all day long, till the shadows lengthen and the evening comes and the busy world is hushed and the fever of life is over and our work is done. Then, in Your mercy, grant us a safe lodging and a holy rest and peace at the last, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

P: O God our Father, by Your mercy and might, the world turns safely into darkness and returns again to light. We place into Your hands our unfinished tasks, our unsolved problems, and our unfulfilled hopes, knowing that only what You bless will prosper. To Your great love and protection, we commit each other and all those we love, knowing that You alone are our sure defender, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

P: Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who watch or work or weep this night, and give Your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, give rest to the weary, pity the afflicted, soothe the suffering, bless the dying—and all for Your love's sake, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

P: Look down, O Lord, from Your heavenly throne, and illuminate this night with Your celestial brightness, that by night as by day, Your people may glorify Your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name, Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are Yours now and forever. Amen.

A Lenten Hymn: (sing two times)

A - do - ra - mus te Chris - te, be - ne - di - ci - mus ti - bi,
We a - dore you, Je - sus Christ, and we bless your ho - ly name;

qui - a per cru - cem tu - am re - de - mi - sti mun - dum,
tru - ly your cross and pas - sion bring us life and heal - ing,

qui - a per cru - cem tu - am re - de - mi - sti mun - dum.
tru - ly your cross and pas - sion bring us life and heal - ing.

P: Lord God, You have called Your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet un-trodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that Your hand is leading us, Your love supporting us and with the knowledge that You will always remember us; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

P: The almighty and merciful Lord, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, bless and preserve us.

C: Amen.

Closing Hymn: CW 587 “Now Rest Beneath Night’s Shadow”
